1. In August Cathy came to Mike and stated that someone had got into her purse. Vandenberg called Deputy Roberts; Deputy Roberts told Vandenberg that Marty was the one that got into her purse. Later Deputy Roberts told Vandenberg that Cathy didn't file a report but in general conversation stated that Marty had got into her purse. Cathy denied that she accused Marty of getting into her purse; she stated someone did but she didn't know who.

Vandenberg swore Allie Watkins and Cathy Morrison under oath, act MCL 4154B.

Watkins under oath swore that Cathy had told him that Marty got into her purse.

Meert has requested to take a polygraph test to prove that she did not get into or even touch Cathy's purse.

Rick Morrison stated that he didn't understand why a comment made had to go to such extreme, Meert stated that if someone accused you of getting into their purse and it wasn't true I am sure you wouldn't think it was such extremes, Meert stated that she has worked with Cathy for twelve years and cannot figure out what has happen, but she will not allow someone to make a false acquisitions about her.

Cemetery Issue, Email

The board agreed that Moerman, Corbin and Kopka will set down with Cathy and discuss her job description and the board's exceptions of her as an employee.
