Now we have a treasurer in the office elected to do their job. Rick Morrison stated that she was in the office full time and it made sense to put her in the position so if he had to do errand she would be here to collect taxes. The board asked how they would handle vacations, because the deputy was here to cover for the treasurer when they are absent or on vacation.

The board asked Morrison how many hours that he expected the deputy to work per week. Morrison will present the board with more information at the May meeting.
